Brain S. Rosenbloom
Member

Mr. Rosenbloom's practice involves patent matters arising primarily in the software, business method, and electrical arts. He counsels clients on a variety of patent-related issues, such as: patentability of inventions; patent infringement; patent validity; and technology licensing. Mr. Rosenbloom's practice also includes patent, copyright and trade secret litigation. He is a member of the Software and Business Methods Committee of the Intellectual Property Owners Association (IPO).

Mr. Rosenbloom was born in Rochester, NY in 1967. He received a B.S. in Electrical Engineering from Columbia University (1990) where he was a member of Tau Beta Pi and Eta Kappa Nu. As part of a joint degree program with Columbia University, he also received a B.A. in Physics from the State University of New York at Geneseo (1990). Following his undergraduate studies, Mr. Rosenbloom joined General Electric in Rockville, MD, where he worked primarily as a software and data-networking engineer. Following his four year career with General Electric, Mr. Rosenbloom returned to Law School. In 1997 he received a J.D. (cum laude) from Georgetown University Law Center in Washington, DC.
