

R. Danny Huntington and Sharon Crane at 2018 FICPI World Congress

Speaking Engagement
Toronto, Canada
June 6-7, 2018

Rothwell Figg partners R. Danny Huntington and Sharon Crane will participate on panels at Fédération Internationale des Conseils en Propriété Intellectuelle's (FICPI) World Congress being held June 3-10, 2018, in Toronto, Canada.

Danny will speak on recent developments in the United States, Canada, Japan, and South Korea during a panel titled "Breaking News - All the Latest Developments You Need to Know." The session is scheduled for Thursday, June 7.

Sharon will speak on subject matter eligibility in the U.S. during a panel titled "§101. Is there a coordinated move in B+ and elsewhere?" The session is scheduled for Wednesday, June 6.

FICPI, the only international NGO whose membership consists exclusively of IP attorneys in private practice, holds a World Congress every three years, attendance of which is restricted to FICPI members. The World Congresses are one of the premier meetings in the intellectual property legal world, usually gathering 300-400 attendees from around the world.
