

Jennifer Maisel at GW's Innovation in Business and Finance Law Conference

Speaking Engagement
Washington, D.C.
February 25-26, 2020

Associate Jennifer Maisel will participate in a panel titled "FinTech: Innovation v. Regulation" at the inaugural Innovation in Business and Finance Law Conference hosted by the Business and Finance Law Program, the Banking and Securities Law Society, and the Corporate and Business Law Society of The George Washington University Law School. The conference will take place February 25-26, 2020, at GW Law.

The world is changing and advancing at an unprecedented rate. As a result, the field of business and finance law is constantly evolving. This event will focus on some of the current and future changes that are affecting the business and financial law industry.

Key Contact

Jennifer B. Maisel

Technologies

Financial Services