

Martin Zoltick at Licensing Executives Society Japan Monthly Seminar

Speaking Engagement
Tokyo, Japan
11.13.19

Partner Martin Zoltick ("Marty") will speak at the Licensing Executives Society Japan (LES Japan) Monthly Seminar in Tokyo on "The Evolving Legal Landscape: Privacy, Data Protection, and Cybersecurity," on November 13, 2019.

Marty's presentation will cover an overview of privacy and data protection; recent developments in data protection laws, including the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), and Japan's Act on the Protection of Personal Information (APPI); industry and technology-specific data privacy considerations; and compliance strategies and framework for risk management.

LES Japan is one of the member societies of Licensing Executives Society International (LESI), an international organization made up of 32 national/regional societies and with more than 10,000 members. The members consist primarily of corporate executives, leaders, and specialists in the legal field, such as lawyers and patent attorneys, who are involved in the licensing of intellectual properties, including technologies, patents, know-how, trademarks, software, digital contents, and technology transfers and technical cooperation, as well as experts, such as people from academia and government service.
