Robert P. Parker

Partner Robert Parker participated in the Federal Circuit Bar Association's (FCBA) Leadership in the Profession podcast series.

In the series, lawyers with different practice portfolios, a spectrum of subject matter interests, and a broad reach of outreach interests share fascinating insights on leadership demands, practice area challenges, and evolutions in the legal profession.

Access to the series is an exclusive benefit for FCBA members only. To learn more about the series, please visit the Leadership in the Profession page on the FCBA website.
