

Sharon Crane Quoted in Law360 Article on Draft Senate Bill on Patent Eligibility

Media Mention
5.29.19

Partner Sharon Crane is quoted in a Law360 article on a draft U.S. Senate bill to rewrite patent eligibility law. The article notes that lawmakers complained that current law resulted in too many inventions eligible for patents under Section 101 of the Patent Act are being invalidated. Crane was quoted on the subject of patentability of abstract ideas.

The article, "Breaking Down The Proposal For A Patent Eligibility Revamp," by Ryan Davis, can be read here.

Key Contact

Sharon E. Crane, Ph.D.

Related Areas of Practice

Patent Prosecution