Accolades & Honors
9.7.23

At the LMG Life Sciences Americas Awards 2023, held on September 7, 2023, in New York City, Rothwell Figg's E. Anthony Figg ("Tony") was announced the winner for "Patent Strategy Attorney of the Year - DC Metro". Partners Steven Lieberman, Robert Parker, and Aydin Harston accepted the award on Tony's behalf at the event. Additionally, the firm was shortlisted for "Intellectual Property Boutique Firm of the Year." The LMG Life Sciences Awards is one of the most respected awards programs for life sciences practitioners and firms.

This 11th annual awards program aims to highlight the best in practice in the industry following a thorough survey of the life sciences sector. The award results are determined through a rigorous research process involving in-depth firm submissions, practitioner interviews, client feedback, and independent research that aims to survey excellent legal service over a 12-month period. Practitioners and teams in the United States, Canada, and Brazil, are represented in categories covering the best in regulatory, corporate, intellectual property, and litigation.

In 2018, Tony was inducted into the LMG Life Sciences Hall of Fame at the 6th annual Life Sciences Awards. He and four other attorneys received this honor for their remarkable careers, dedication to clients, and influence on the industry. Tony specializes in intellectual property law, primarily involving the chemical, pharmaceutical, healthcare, and biotechnology industries. His practice focuses on patent litigation and inter partes matters before the PTAB, appeals, ADR, patent procurement, intellectual property licensing and related contract matters, opinions, and counseling.
