The LMG Life Sciences 2022 Americas Awards shortlist includes Rothwell Figg's E. Anthony Figg ("Tony") as a nominee for Patent Strategy Attorney of the Year in the D.C. Metro area.

LMG Life Sciences produces one of the most respected awards programs for life sciences practitioners and firms in the United States, Canada, and Europe. Now in its 10th year, the program aims to highlight the best in practice in the industry following a thorough survey of the life sciences sector. Covered in the award categories are four key practice areas recognized by LMG Life Sciences, which include: regulatory, intellectual property, financial & corporate, and non-IP litigation & enforcement.

The annual awards event will be held in-person at the Essex House in New York City on September 8, 2022.

In 2018, Tony was inducted into the LMG Life Sciences Hall of Fame at the 6th annual Life Sciences Awards. He and four other attorneys received this honor for their remarkable careers, dedication to clients, and influence on the industry. Tony specializes in intellectual property law, primarily involving the chemical, pharmaceutical, healthcare, and biotechnology industries. His practice focuses on patent litigation and inter partes matters before the PTAB, appeals, ADR, patent procurement, intellectual property licensing and related contract matters, opinions, and counseling.
